

I urge the FCC to not consider further consolidation or mergers of our media ownership. Doing so is a threat to our citizens' access to a diversity of points of view, and threatens the maintenance of a free society.